COPYRIGHT COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

FIRST-TIME USE

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. Norfolk State University reserves the right to reject for course reserve any photocopy that it believes to be in violation of copyright law.

Copies submitted for reserve that exceed Fair use must be accompanied by permission From the copyright holder!

I have read the above information on the Copyright Law and I certify that the copies comply with U.S. Copyright Law and Circulation/reserve policies.

**************************************************************************************
Name of Professor:__________________________________________________________
Course No. and Title:_________________________________________________________
******************************************************************************

I do understand that because of copyright restrictions, materials are removed from reserve after the end of each semester. However, I may request that materials, except those restricted by copyright, remain on reserve for the following semester provided the course is being offered that semester.

Signature:________________________________________________

Date:_____________________________________________